15	Date of Detention Hearing: February 5, 2007
16	The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and
17	based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds

	DETENTION ORDER 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i) PAGE 1				15.13 Rev. 1/91

- 2. According to records reviewed by Pretrial Services, defendant allegedly admitted to prior sexual molestation of a minor in the 1980s.
- 3. Defendant's daughter offers her second home as a residence for defendant. In considering the possibility of less restrictive conditions of release, as contrasted with detention, the Court has considered GPS or Electronic Monitoring. These programs would allow for monitoring of the defendant's whereabouts, but would not provide monitoring of visitors into the defendant's residence.
- 4. Defendant is not found to pose a risk of nonappearance. However, he does pose a risk of danger to the community due to alleged self admitted history of sexual abuse of a minor and the nature of the instant offense.
- 5. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably address the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of
